On the first and second day, September 23 and 24, 2026, the conference will take place at the Croatian State Archives at Marulićev trg 21. This is the central archival institution responsible for collecting information on archival materials in Croatia. It is the most important palace of the Croatian Art Nouveau period, a combination of early Viennese Secessionism and modern European architecture from the beginning of the 20th century, built in 1913.

Museum of Contemporary Art

On the second day, September 24, 2026, the program includes a visit to the Museum of Contemporary Art at Avenija Dubrovnik 17, where this year's conference poster exhibition will be hosted. It was built according to the design of architect Igor Franić. The museum opened on December 11, 2009. As a multi-program institution, it mediates heritage and the contemporary scene, ranging from visual art to performing and film art.
